

Recovery: What are We Really Talking About?

Presenter: Barbara Tedesco

Director of Consumer Link, the Peer Support and Advocacy Division of Mental Health Association of Nassau County, and Adjunct Professor at Hofstra University

Twenty years ago, recovery was a word rarely, if ever, heard when we were referring to individuals diagnosed with mental illness. Today, while "recovery" is often used, there seems to be a lot of confusion as to what we are really talking about. Come listen, learn, and share your thoughts.
